RegEd and SILA Continue Partnership to Provide SILA Digest

Raleigh, April 1, 2013 - RegEd and the Securities and Insurance Licensing Association (SILA) are pleased to announce that they have renewed their partnership to provide the SILA Digest. The SILA Digest is a compilation of licensing and education requirements for the financial services professional. The Digest includes charts detailing agency, appointment, producer licensing and continuing education information, as well as many other licensing and education topics, for all state departments of insurance.

RegEd and SILA have partnered to provide the Digest since 2010.

"SILA is thrilled to continue its relationship with RegEd and the value that this partnership brings to SILA subscribers and conference attendees who rely on the SILA Digest resource tool for regulatory responses to important licensing processes," reports Diana Capes, Executive Vice President, SILA. "The SILA Digest Service continues to be the sought-after subscription from members who rely on its important regulatory updates to help them remain compliant in this ever-changing industry."

The Digest is available as part of the SILA Digest Service, a subscription service that continuously provides updated Digest information and notifies subscribers of changes.

"We are very pleased to continue our partnership with SILA to produce the Digest. Working together gives us the opportunity to provide our clients and the financial services industry with the necessary information to maintain compliance with a variety of state licensing and education requirements," said Angela Pace, Chief Regulatory Officer of RegEd. "The Digest, like all RegEd products and services, is designed to enable compliance with a complex set of regulatory requirements. It is a powerful addition to any licensing professional's toolkit."
